

The new Journal of Belgian History

Â

The new Journal of Belgian History (JBH) is an illustrated scientific journal devoted to the history of Belgium in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. It is the result of a merger between the old RBHC / BTNG (1969-2011) and the Cahiers d'Histoire du Temps présent / Bijdragen tot de Eigentijdse Geschiedenis (1996-2011). The journal publishes high-quality articles, summaries of the work of recent doctoral theses, and reviews of historical monographs concerning the history of Belgium, as well as a debate forum. More information can be found in the editorial of the first issue (click here for consultation).

The journal has been incorporated since 2007 in the ISI Arts and Humanities Citation Index. Four issues are published annually including articles in English, French and Dutch. The new JBH is published by CEGESOMA. The journal has its own website (click here for consultation).

Â

JBH : New content digitally accessible

The articles and sections (debate, book reviews, PhD's) of 2017 are now fully accessible online on : www.journalbelgianhistory.be.

Issue 4 of the JBH (2018) now available

The fourth issue of the Journal of Belgian History contains four articles and a contribution to the debate section.

Third issue of the JBH 2018 published

Just a few weeks after the publication of the first double-sized issue of 2018 (the thematic issue 'Congo at War'), the third issue of the JBH has already arrived. The issue has four articles: one in French, two in Dutch and one in English.

Journal of Belgian History: Special edition "Congo at war" (2018 1-2) out now!

This special edition with guest editors Enika Ngongo, Bérengère Piret and Nathalie Toussignant is dedicated to Congo during the First World War.

Â

It contains six innovative articles that look beyond strictly military aspects and delve into a number of issues related to international law.Â

The Journal of Belgian History publishes a thematic issue on the history of psychiatry in Belgium

The new issue (number four, 2017) of the Journal of Belgian History is a thematic issue on the history of psychiatry in Belgium, edited by Benoît Majerus (Université de Luxembourg) and Anne Roekens (Université de Namur).

The "Bijdragen"/"Cahiers" (1970-1995) added to the digital archive of the JBH

The seventeen volumes of the journal 'Bijdragen tot de Geschiedenis van de Tweede Wereldoorlog'/'Cahiers d'histoire de la seconde guerre mondiale' (1970-1995) have been added to the website of the Journal of Belgian History (JBH) (<http://www.journalbelgianhistory.be/en>). All articles are free and digitally accessible. This means that, for the first time, the digital archive of three related journals have been integrated: the old 'Bijdragen tot de Geschiedenis van de Tweede Wereldoorlog'/'Cahiers d'histoire de la seconde guerre mondiale', the Journal of Belgian History (from 1969) and the 'Bijdragen tot de Eigentijdse Geschiedenis'/'Cahiers d'Histoire du Temps présent' (BEG/CHTP, 1996-2011).

JOURNAL OF BELGIAN HISTORY "The Double Sized Issue of the JBH of 2017 has been published

With considerable delay, the double-sized issue (2-3) of 2017 has been published.

JOURNAL OF BELGIAN HISTORY – The first 2017 issue is now available

^

The contributions in the first 2017 issue of the Journal of Belgian History – of which two in French, and two in Dutch – again bear testimony to the thematic variety of present-day research on Belgian history.

^

Journal of Belgian History – 2016, nos. 3-4

^

Our journal is vitally important for who wishes to follow recent developments of academic research on contemporary Belgian history.

Our new double issue contains six articles that focus on innovative research

^

A renewed website

^

The website of the JBH – the journal of reference for Belgian contemporary history – has recently been renewed !

It is now possible to search all articles by keywords, by category (reviews, PhD research, debates) or even by thematic issue.

Browse the clear and user-friendly pages of the site and discover the second new thematic issue of this year dedicated to the Belgian Military History before 1914.

Enjoy the (re)discovery !

Subscriptions or single issues of the JBH

Subscriptions Four issues, of which one double issue, to be published in May (N°1), September (N° 2-3) and December (N°4)

Individuals: 65 €, postage not included

Institutional: 90 €, postage not included

Booksellers benefit from a reduction of 30 % on these rates. To order a single issue particuliers: 25 €, (numero double 50 €,) frais de port non inclus

Individuals: 25 €, (double issue 50 €,) postage not included

Institutional: 35 €, (double issue 70 €,) postage not included

Booksellers benefit from a reduction of 30 % on these rates.

Editorial Staff of the new JBH

Editors in chief

Nico Wouters (CegeSoma-ARA) & Catherine Lanneau (ULg) ^ Copy Editors

Alain Colignon (CegeSoma) ^

Editorial Assistant Isabelle Delvaux ^ (CegeSoma)

Overview of the previous issues of the new Journal of Belgian History (JBH)

To consult the overview of the previous issues, click below on the image or the issue. The table of contents and the abstracts of last year's articles are directly accessible on the website of the Journal of Belgian History. A year after publication of an issue, this website gives free digital access to the complete contents of the articles and sections.

The CHTP-BEG online

We have decided to put all the issues of the journal online thus assuring a wider accessibility. Contemporary history in Belgium suffers from a lack of international visibility that is not entirely due to a lack of interest for the history of a "small" country. If you wish to read a issue or a specific article, it is now possible.

The Cahiers and Cahiers-Bijdragen online

We have also decided to put the Cahiers d'histoire de la Seconde Guerre mondiale, which became the Cahiers-Bijdragen, online, to allow the readers to acquaint themselves with the issues published before 1996. Would you like to consult an old issue of this journal ?

Old copies of the CHTP-BEG at give-away prices!

The merger of the Bijdragen tot de Eigentijdse Geschiedenis(BEG)/Cahiers d'Histoire du Temps présent (CHTP) and the Belgisch Tijdschrift voor Nieuwste Geschiedenis/Revue belge d'Histoire contemporaine in the beginning of 2012 led to the creation of the new Belgisch Tijdschrift voor Nieuwste Geschiedenis/Revue belge d'Histoire contemporaine. This event seemed a good opportunity to better acquaint you with the CHTP-BEG. We therefore offer most issues of the CHTP-BEG at the price of 5 euro instead of 22 euro.