It is possible, subject to certain conditions, to rent the material of this exhibition:

"Women and War"

This bilingual exhibition opened in 1997 in the State Archives (the text on the panels as well as the video tapes and sound documents are in French and in Dutch) and outline the position of women during European wars from the fifteenth to the twentieth century. Among other issues it raises the question of how five centuries of participation in armed conflict has affected women's liberation.
