

Anne Catherine Pardon

Anne-Catherine Pardon is a PhD student associated to the Evangelische Theologische Faculteit Leuven. In the context of her master thesis in Theology and Religious Studies (ETF, Leuven), she did research on anti-semitism in the work of the German theologian Gerhard Kittel (1888-1948). In her master thesis in Language and Literature (VUB, Brussels), she focuses on the discriminatory language in the prefaces of the Italian fascist Telesio Interlandi (1894-1965) in the journal "La Difesa della Razza". In her present research, she identifies the ideology of Gerhard Kittel on the basis of a discourse analysis and evaluates it within the (nazi) context of the time.
