

Grégoire Jocelyn

Grégoire Jocelyn holds a Ph. D. in history (University of Liège – 2006), and wrote a thesis on the relationship between history as featured on television and historiography, pedagogy and popular culture in Belgium (1953-1995). He is currently a high school teacher. He also takes care of the conservation and analysis of historical programmes in the media, more specifically radio and television programmes. He is strongly interested in immaterial cultural heritage.